

POOR PROGRESS SHOWN IN CENTENNIAL FUND

Total Amount of Pledges is Now Three Hundred Twenty-One Thousand Dollars.

FIFTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS MUST BE IN HANDS OF COMMITTEE BY END OF JUNE.

Thirteen Classes Have Increased Their Subscription During Past Week.

Rather poor progress during the past week is reported by the Centennial Fund Committee as up to the present time the total amount of pledges is only $321,000, which means that $8,000 has been received in the last week. It is absolutely imperative that $54,000 more be received by the end of June, in order to obtain the total of $375,000 desired by that time.

The class of 1865 has now one hundred per cent. subscription. A revised and corrected list of the class standings follows:

TENNIS TEAM WINS MATCH

Springfield Defeated 4 to 2 in Second Home Match.

BOTH DOUBLES EASILY TAKEN.

Ortgies and C. E. Cuninghame Win Their Singles Matches.

Last Wednesday afternoon Trinity defeated Springfield College in tennis by a score of four to two. Each team won two of the four singles matches played, but Trinity took both the doubles matches without a great deal of difficulty.

Captain Howard Ortgies, '22, playing number one man, and C. E. Cuninghame, '24, playing number three man, were forced to go three sets in order to finally win their singles matches. In the number one singles match Ortgies took six love games from his opponent who only succeeded in getting one on Ortgies' service. C. E. Cuninghame lost the first set of his singles match. The second set was very close but Cuninghame finally won it 6 to 4. In the third set his opponent seemed to weaken and Cuninghame had little trouble in winning 6 to 3.

Nobles, '24, playing number two man, and J. B. Cuninghame, '22, playing number four man, both lost their singles matches. But in the number one doubles match Ortgies and Nobles defeated their opponents in two straight sets. In the doubles Springfield shifted their order, their number one and four men playing number one doubles, while their number two and three men played two doubles. In the second doubles match Morris and C. E. Cuninghame won from their opponents after three rather hard sets. The summary:

Singles:
Ortgies (Trinity) defeated Rockhill (Springfield), 6-1, 5-7, 6-3.
Graves (Springfield) defeated Nobles (Trinity), 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.
C. E. Cuninghame (Trinity) defeated McCaskie (Springfield), 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.
McCutcheon (Springfield) defeated J. B. Cuninghame (Trinity), 6-3, 6-2.
Doubles:
Ortgies and Nobles (Trinity) defeated Rockhill and McCutcheon (Springfield), 7-5, 6-3.
C. E. Cuninghame and Morris (Trinity) defeated McCaskie and Graves (Springfield) 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.
Final score Trinity 4, Springfield 2.

Rhode Island State defeated Trinity on Thursday, May 25, in a closely contested track meet at Kingston, R. I., by a score of 68 to 58. A drizzling rain and a south wind made fast times impossible. The result hung in the balance until the final event, when Rhode Island State took first and second places in the hammer throw. However, the team showed great improvement.

The summary of the meet follows:

100-yard dash—Won by Johnson, Trinity; second, Nash, Trinity; third, Totman, Rhode Island; time, 10 3-5.

In the Final Spring Elections of College offices held last Friday, Robert T. Hartt, of Hartford, was elected president of the Senate to succeed J. Bayard Cuninghame, '22, of Hamilton, Ohio; Stanley P. Miller, of Point Marion, Pa., was elected College Marshal; Frank S. Jones, of North Adams, Mass., was elected Secretary of the Athletic Association; Daniel G. Morton, of Asheville, N. C., was elected Junior member of the Discipline Committee; and Alfred M. Niese, of New York, N. Y., was elected chairman of the Union Committee.

In the Primary Elections, which were held last Tuesday, Ferguson and Webster were eliminated, leaving Hartt, Gesner and Tenney in the race for President of the Senate in the Finals. In the Finals Hartt carried the election by a margin of five votes. Hartt is a Hartford man, and has played on the football team for two years. He was unable to play during his Sophomore year because of injuries. Hartt has been prominent in college and class activities all during his college career. He is a member of the Delta Phi Fraternity.

Webster and Ferguson were also eliminated in the Primaries for Chairman of the Union Committee. Niese, '23, carried the Final election over Bowdidge and Celentano, Celentano being his nearest competitor. Niese transferred from Union College at the beginning of his Sophomore year and since he entered Trinity he has taken an active part in all college activities.

For College Marshal Miller, '23, won the election over Tenney and Canner by a margin of eleven votes, Tenney being his nearest competitor. Miller has been a member of the football and basketball squads, president of his class, and is now chairman of the College Finance Committee. He is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, and the Sophomore Dining Club.

Morton, '24, had little difficulty in winning the office of Junior member of the Discipline Committee, as he had thirty-three more votes than his nearest opponent, Robinson. The Discipline Committee is composed of the president of the college, three professors, and two students, one Junior elected by the college body and the president of the Senate. Morton has been president of his class, chairman of the Freshman-Junior Banquet Committee, Chairman of the Sophomore Hop, a member of the football, baseball, and track teams. Morton is a member of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity, and the Sophomore Dining Club.

Jones, '24, won the office of Secretary of the Athletic Association by nineteen votes, over his competitors Morton and Keating. Jones has been secretary and treasurer of his class two times. He handled the finances of the Sophomore Smoker, is a member of the baseball team, and is a member of the Delta Phi Fraternity, and the Sophomore Dining Club.

AN APOLOGY.

THE TRIPOD is in receipt of a letter from Robert A. Benton, '64, class secretary, in which he rectifies an error in the weekly list of class standings in the Centennial Fund. That error has been corrected, and THE TRIPOD offers an apology to 1864, for so long carrying it as unsubscribed.

Continuing in his letter, Mr. Benton states that a little consideration should have led THE TRIPOD to pass over in silence those early classes which apparently have subscribed nothing.

There are now five living members in 1864, four of whom are retired clergymen, who, we all know receive a meagre enough retirement salary.

In publishing the figures of the secretary of the Centennial Fund, arranged by classes, THE TRIPOD never intended to cast reproach on those early classes with one, or a handful, of living members, all of whom are retired. Every Trinity man realizes that many alumni are unable to subscribe their full quota to the fund. The committee realized this when it urged alumni to get friends to subscribe, if they were unable to do so themselves. What Trinity does expect is that each alumnus will subscribe as much as he can. If this is nothing, it still does not reflect unfavorably on those men.

Far from casting a reflection on the loyalty of those members of the early classes, the figures, showing the dwindling numbers of the classes from 1853 to 1870, give to Trinity men a sense of pride. In that period of her history Trinity gave to the Church a large quota of clergymen. Men whose untiring efforts have done much toward the advancement of their nation, and whose loyalty to their Alma Mater has been proven many times over by the entrance of sons or friends' sons in college. They have labored long and well and the burden must now be taken up by others, to carry on in the same spirit of loyalty and devotion.

CLASS BANNERS.

The class of 1919 has made a move toward restoring the class banners lost in the fire which destroyed Alumni Hall, by the appointment of a committee to secure a replica of the original banner and hang it in the new hall at Commencement this year. The action is one which should find ready response from all the classes whose banners were destroyed.

The universal regret expressed immediately after the fire was that the old banners were lost. Although some few of them were far from artistic, they each expressed the love of Trinity alumni for the college and were shrouded in tradition and memories of happy days.

THE TRIPOD suggests that all classes whose banners hung in the old hall take immediate steps to follow 1919's lead and restore the concrete evidence of their affection for Alma Mater. Commencement time this year would be doubly precious to alumni if they could enter a restored Alumni Hall and find the old traditions mellowing the new walls.

LORD JEFF.

Newspaper despatches from Amherst carry the announcement that "Lord Jeff", the Amherst humorous publication, has decided to exclude from its columns all suggestive and salacious material. Trinity men have found much to admire in the character of the sister college up the Connecticut, and certainly this most recent action is one to applaud.

There is very little to be said in favor of the suggestive as humor. In bygone years the great masters of fiction employed such material as a stock in trade, but the public's sense of humor has traveled far since that period. The great contemporary humorists find a surfeit of material without dipping into pools of suggestion; college wits can do likewise. There is an immense amount of humorous material at hand in college life, as the many excellent publications of the "Lord Jeff" type demonstrate. The best of them find this material and use it cleanly.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL.

Warehouse Point, Conn.,
May 22, 1922.

To the Editor of THE TRIPOD:

I desire to call the attention of the class of 1921, through the courtesy of your columns, to the fact that we are planning a re-union and banquet for this June.

Classmates of 1921—Let us start off right, before the destinies of time separate us too completely, by returning this June, in a band one hundred per cent. strong, for our first re-union.

Never has a better time afforded itself for returning Trinity men to express their true appreciation of their college, when every effort of its alumni body is directed toward the furtherance of the campaign of the Centennial Drive.

Allow me to urge all men who took out insurance policies in favor of their Alma Mater last year, to continue the payment of premiums on them. It is an honorable and gracious act to do so, and one that will be the more fully appreciated, both by donator and college in the future. The needs of a college are ever increasing, and it may be that our mite will be of assistance in the future upbuilding of Trinity, which we are all desirous of seeing.

Harold Slattery has willingly accepted to act as chairman of our banquet to be given in the Dutch room of the Heublein Hotel, the evening of the seventeenth, at 7 o'clock. Please give your careful consideration to the above briefly stated matters, and reply, stating the possibility of your being present.

Yours in the Class of 1921,

BEAUFORT R. L. NEWSOM, Graduate Secretary.

Figures presented by the United States Bureau of Education to the Association of American Colleges show that Oregon, Utah and Iowa have the largest number of students in proportion to population. Attendance at universities, colleges and professional schools last year totaled 450,000—a gain of 36% over 1917-1918. Foreign students numbered 6,900, of which China had 1443, Canada 1294, Japan 525, South America 563, Russia 290, and India 235.

NEW COURSES TO BE OFFERED

Several Changes Made in Faculty for Next Year.

A number of changes have taken place in the schedule of courses, since the publication of the new 1922-1923 catalog, which have recently been announced in a bulletin issued by the college office.

Italian-1 is to be offered if enough men sign up for the course. Spanish-1 is not to be given, but an advanced course in this language will be offered for those who have already had Spanish-1. Professor Spaulding is taking over Professor Galpin's courses in French-2 and in French-3, the drama course.

Geology-1 is to be open only to those Freshmen who come credited with Chemistry. Otherwise only Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors will be admitted.

English 4, 9, and 10 will not be offered next year but English 12, Contemporary Literature, and English 11, American Literature, have been added.

In the Greek Department a course in Greek Life has been added for Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, and in the History Department several courses that have been given this year have been dropped for next year. A course in English Constitution has been placed on the list.

There are eight courses in various departments that are offered to only a limited number of men. The limit in these classes runs from eight to thirty.

The changes in the personnel of the faculty for next year have been announced by the college office.

Professor Henry A. Perkins, M. A., Sc. D., the head of the Physics Department, will return from his sabbatical year and will resume charge of the department.

Professor Charles E. Rogers, C. E., M. C. E., Professor of Civil Engineering, will be absent for the ensuing college year. His substitute has not yet been announced.

Professor Gustavus A. Kleene, Ph. D., head of the Economics Department, will also be away for the year 1922-1923. His substitute has likewise not been announced.

In the Chemistry Department Charles B. Hurd, a Cornell graduate of Waterville, Maine, who has been an assistant professor at Colby, will act as assistant professor. There will also be two graduate instructors in this department.

Professor Brown who has been teaching in the Department of Mathematics during the past year will resign. His place has not yet been filled.

An assistant professor of Romance Languages has been secured in the person of Doctor John A. Spaulding, a Harvard graduate, who has been teaching at Yale.

REV. EDSALL ACCEPTS CALL TO GENEVA, N. Y.

Rev. Samuel H. Edsall, '15, has accepted a call to become rector of Trinity Church in Geneva, N. Y., and will take up his new work on the first of September.

While in college Edsall won the Intercollegiate Tennis championship one year and was runner up several other years. He was also a track man. He is a graduate of Seabury Divinity School. Edsall has been assistant rector of Trinity Church, Hartford, since 1920. Mr. Edsall's engagement to Mrs. Robert Swift Gillett, of Hartford, was recently announced. They will be married July 3 at Ogunquit, Maine.

NICKNAMES.

The study of nicknames is always interesting, no less in the case of colleges than with boys. A review of the names adopted by the students of various colleges reveals neither rhyme nor reason.

But why should the students of Columbia University be called Lions; those of Yale, Bulldogs; of Princeton, Tigers; Hastings College, Broncos; Yankton College, Greyhounds; Williamette University, Bearcats; Grinnell College, Pioneers; Oklahoma University, Sooners; Iowa State College, Cyclones, Hamline University, Pipers; Wofford College, Terriers; Vanderbilt University, Commodores; Southern California, Trojans; or Florida, Alligators?

The list is not confined to animals. Thus the University of South Carolina students bear the appellation of Gamecocks; Nebraska University, Cornhuskers; Randolph-Macon, Yellow Jackets; the University of Richmond, Spiders; Ohio State University, Buckeyes; Iowa University, Hawkeyes; Indiana University, Hoosiers; Kansas, Jayhawks.

There is much duplication. A hasty scrutiny reveals the athletes of seven colleges calling themselves Bulldogs, five going under the title of Tigers, and two accepting the cognomen of Coyotes.

How would you like to be called Pikers, as are the students of Washington University; or Tar Heels, like those of the University of North Carolina, or Flickertails like the members of the University of North Dakota?

A state-wide drive to have Pennsylvania State College formally accepted as the State University of Pennsylvania and expanded accordingly, has been launched by the new president, Dr. John M. Thomas. Contrary to general opinion, the University of Pennsylvania has always been a private institution, and the State of Pennsylvania has no state university. Pennsylvania State College turned away 1000 students this year for lack of accommodations.

Body.

At a college meeting on Monday morning, Byrnes reported the following recommendation from the senate: "That each constituency which elects a senator elect an alternate as the representative of that constituency when the regular senator cannot be present."

Puels offered the following amendment which was adopted: "That the same rules shall hold for the election of alternates as hold for the election of senators." The motion was made and carried that the measure be adopted, although it had not been posted for the full week.

Henault made a motion that Gladstein be permitted to bring up a matter at that time instead of proceeding with the regular order of business. A rising vote was taken and the motion defeated.

Mohnkern reported the following from the committee on limitation of activities: "That the following offices be divided into the classes designated."

Class A.

Executive board of TRIPOD.

Editor and business manager of IVY.

President and business manager of Musical Clubs.

President and business manager of Jesters.

Managers of major sports.

President of Senate.

Chairman of Union Committee.

Chairman of Finance Committee.

President and secretary of A. A.

Class B.

Auxiliary board of TRIPOD.

Chairmen of smokers and proms.

Vice-chairmen of Union Committee.

Assistant managers of teams.

Men who work downtown.

No man may hold more than one office in Class A and two in Class B at the same time.

This plan shall take effect with the incoming Freshman class.

The Medusa, as a committee on campus activities, shall be charged with the carrying out of this plan.

In case a man desires to hold offices more than allowed by the above, he may appeal to the senate to do so, and such permission may be granted.

Cunningham explained that the classification is based on the amount of work required to fulfill the duties of the different offices. This report was adopted by a rising vote.

Gladstein made a motion that the action of the senate in rejecting thirty-three incomplete ballots be declared null and void. He upheld his view of the matter with extracts from the electoral laws of various countries and opinions from local election officials. He said that he realized that Trinity College was not bound by outside election laws, but that the rule of the senate, rejecting the ballots was made after the election, and therefore not valid, being an ex-post-facto decree.

Mohnkern said that the senate did what it thought best for Trinity, and urged acceptance of the election with "Trinity Spirit." Gladstein declared that his protests were not actuated by defeat, as Mohnkern had intimated, and that he was acting on his own initiative and not by instructions, as the fraternity senators did.

Chairman Cunningham interrupted to say that many of the senators were not acting according to instruction, but according to their own opinions. Gladstein went on to say that Cunningham assured him that the action of the senate would be rescinded if he could produce evidence to show that it was not in conformity with the general practice.

Cunningham told of the actions at the senate meeting and explained how it was giving one man an undue advantage to vote for him alone, instead of voting for the full three.

Byrnes asked if Gladstein admitted that the senate was autonomous. Gladstein replied that the powers of the senate were delegated to it by the college body, and so the college body could revoke any action of the senate. Cunningham made a plea for considering the matter from a moral standpoint and stated that he believed it wrong for one man to have the advantage of single voting when others were voting the full ticket.

Gladstein said that the single voting came from two causes: the oversight of some, and the unfamiliarity of others with more than one of the candidates. Cunningham interrupted to say that oversight was the fault of the man and not the senate or the College Body. On account of lack of time the question was put. Gladstein objected, but Cunningham said that Gladstein had already used thirty-five minutes and called for a rising vote. The motion was defeated. A ballot was called for and the motion was carried. The meeting adjourned immediately after the ballot was taken.

ORTGIES HEADS INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Plans Being Made for Intramural Tennis Tournament During Week of June 12.

At a meeting of the Interfraternity Council held last Friday night, Howard Ortgies, of Forest Hills, Long Island, was elected President of that body for next year, while Conrad H. Gesner, of Waterbury, Conn., was elected secretary. Ortgies succeeds W. C. Hicks, of Washington, D. C., while Gesner succeeds R. J. Plumb, of New Milford.

It was decided that the chair should appoint a committee to make plans for an intramural tennis tournament to be played during the week of June 12, immediately following the final examinations. The teams of each competing body will probably be composed of two men. Two singles and one doubles will then be played in each match.

The new members of the council for the ensuing year are: Howard S. Ortgies, representing Alpha Chi Rho; Conrad H. Gesner, representing Alpha Delta Phi; Luca Celentano, representing Alpha Tau Kappa; Frederick W. Bowdidge, representing Delta Phi; William G. Brill, representing St. Anthony Hall; Geo. P. Tenney, representing Psi Upsilon; Martin F. Gaudian, representing Sigma Nu; William G. Terrill, representing Phi Gamma Delta, and Paul J. Norman, representing Delta Kappa Epsilon.

INTERCLASS SING IS PLANNED

Cup for Winning Class Offered by Dr. Locke.

Dr. Harry L. F. Locke, who is taking several courses at Trinity, has offered a cup to be awarded to the winning class in a competitive interclass sing. For the past few weeks college sings have been held on the campus at about ten-thirty every Wednesday night, and this is responsible for the idea of an interclass sing. The matter is to be referred to the various classes, but the contest will in all probability not be held until next fall.

SOPHOMORE CLASS ELECTS BIRMINGHAM AS SENATOR.

At a meeting of the Sophomore Class, held on Friday, May 26, Thomas J. Birmingham, of Hartford, was elected class senator for the year 1922-23. Frank S. Jones, Secretary and Treasurer of the class, read a financial report of the Sophomore Smoker which was accepted.

KNEELAND AWARDED ENGLISH PRIZE

Henry T. Keeland, '22, of St. Louis, Mich., has been awarded the first prize in the alumni contest in English composition, while the second prize was taken by Harry H. Clark, '23, of Woodbury, Conn. The value of the prizes are twenty-five, and twenty dollars, respectively, from the income of a fund contributed by the alumni. The subjects of the essays are selected in consultation with the instructors in the English Department before the tenth of December, and the essays must be submitted to the Professor of English Literature immediately after the Christmas recess.

Kneeland transferred to Trinity from the University of Michigan at the end of his Sophomore year, and will graduate this June.

A large meeting at Liverpool University, England, under the auspices of the Liverpool Liquor Problem Investigation Association, was recently addressed by Lady Astor, M. P., and presided over by the Bishop of Liverpool. Lady Astor received a cordial reception, although there were many in the audience who disapproved her statement: "You cannot reconcile the interests of the liquor trade and the interests of the nation: they are diametrically opposed."

Alumni Recall That Annual Physics Joke

DEFINE electricity" said the Prof. The class was mown down, one by one, like so many whiskers. And then—"no one has ever been able properly to define electricity since its discovery." And the smile dried on his face!

Since 1840 Williams' Shaving Soap has been defined by hundreds of thousands of college men with one word—perfection. And it doesn't dry on your face.

Example—Williams' Shaving Cream. At 7:50 you can whip up a creamy mellow lather that softens the heart of the toughest stubble. Your snickersnee slips along to a slick job and a glove-smooth face—in time to catch chapel at 8.

And the satisfaction afterwards is almost indefinable at that.

Try it—

The program for Commencement Week is practically complete and gives promise of being one of the most thoroughly successful Commencements that Trinity ever had. The Hon. W. Cameron Forbes of Boston and Professor Charles Seymore of New Haven are to be among the guests and will address the college.
